

- Massive federal government tax surplus this year will make a tax rebate possible to all middle class families early in 2006.
- Average refund will be between $1000 to $2000 for a married couple and $500 to $1000 for a single person.
- Listen to the official speech and instructions on how to apply for this refund.

You think you are going to get what ?????

